

Product Data Sheet

MarineSeal Series 2000FD

System Biography

Precis	UCC MarineSeal Series 2000FD system is designed to corrosion protect steel piling in open water conditions. UCC MarineSeal Series 2000FD System has at its heart, Petrolatum Tape, which has proven its efficacy over 85 years as a corrosion prevention coating.
Scope	UCC MarineSeal Series 2000FD System can protect piles up to 2.0m diameter and by adopting a stack jacket concept can protect lengths of up to 12 metres.
Features	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Proven performance in the marine environment, with limited surface preparation. - No curing time, ready for immediate service at completion of installation. - Retains physical properties for full service life. - Colour Coded Outer Cover.
Application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Prepare surface to St 2 std. - Apply UCC MarineSeal Primer to substrate at spread rate of 1-3kg/m² approximately. - Profile projections and voids with UCC MarineSeal Mastic. - Spirally apply MarineSeal Tape incorporating 55% overlap to achieve a double thickness with each circumferential turn. - Fit MarineSeal Series 2000FD Outer Cover.

