

Product Data Sheet

MarineSeal Series

2000XD (BSI - Jacketing Closing System)

System Biography

Precis	UCC MarineSeal Series 2000XD system is designed to corrosion protect steel piling in open water conditions. UCC MarineSeal Series 2000XD System has at its heart, Petrolatum Tape, which has proven its efficacy over 85 years as a corrosion prevention coating.
Scope	UCC MarineSeal Series 2000XD System can protect piles up to 2.0m diameter and by adopting a stack jacket concept can protect lengths of up to 12 metres.
Features	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Proven performance in the marine environment, with limited surface preparation. - No curing time, ready for immediate service at completion of installation. - Retains physical properties for full service life. - Hidden fastening system, no exposed fasteners.
Application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Prepare surface to St 2 std. - Apply UCC MarineSeal Primer to substrate at spread rate of 0.5-1kg/m² approximately. - Profile projections and voids with UCC MarineSeal Mastic. - Spirally apply MarineSeal Tape incorporating 55% overlap to achieve a double thickness with each circumferential turn. - Fit MarineSeal Series 2000XD Outer Cover.

